Description

Recently renovated large 2-room-apartment in the heart of Karlsruhe-Durlach, located right next to the ancient city wall of medieval Durlach. The apartment is on the 1st floor in a well-kept building constructed in the 70s. Walking distance to tram (S-Bahn), Durlach train station, shops and restaurants. Public parking is available next to the apartment. The price includes a cleaning service (approx. every 10 days).

Equipment

The apartment is fully equipped and suitable for 1-2 persons. The kitchen includes among others a stove, fridge, dishwasher, coffee machine, toaster, and dishes. There is also a washing machine and a drying room. The bathroom has modern tiles and a glass-designed shower. The apartment has a free Wi-Fi connection, free digital TV and a telephone including free cellphone and landline calls within Germany.

Location

The uniqueness of the location offers attractive walks to nearby parks and green areas as well as enjoying life in the city. The centre of medieval Durlach can be reached in a few minutes. The next tram stop (S-Bahn) is directly in front of the house and access to the national motorway is fast. Durlach train station is at the end of the street and only 500 m away. Shops and restaurants are all in walking distance. Durlach, the largest district of Karlsruhe, offers the highest quality of live and excellent transport links.

Additional Features

High living standard in cozy and charming medieval Durlach make this apartment the perfect place for your stay. Durlach is one of Karlsruhe's prime locations, offering a fast connection to Karlsruhe city centre. The picturesque town of Durlach, with own shopping facilities and a good choice of restaurants, is also proud of its marketplace (daily market) in front of the townhouse. Feel at home and fall in love watching the illuminated town church at night and the beautiful ancient city wall of medieval Durlach.
